

2018 Summer Classes

JULY 2 – AUGUST 18, 2018

Dance

Master Class Mondays:

Try something new in our Master Class Mondays. Each week instructors will introduce and challenge dancers in a different dance form. Ever wonder what is the different between Jazz and Jazz-Funk? What is Lyrical? Want to learn more about being part of a Dance Team? This is a great low-stress, low commitment way to find out. Meet a new teacher. Check out our new dance studios. We welcome all interested in dance!

The Contemporary Salon of Enlightenment and Discourse (Adults)

Thomas Dareneau

Aug. 6-9

This course will be a discussion group in the style of the French Enlightenment, only instead of arguing politics we'll be eating snacks, drinking wine, and discussing Contemporary Art (1990 to present day). There will be films, conversation, youTube clips and interactive "projects". Some particular artists of interest may include Ai WeiWei, Jeff Koons, Oliver Herring, Carrie Mae Weems, Do Ho Suh, Mark Dion and probably BANKSY. Never heard of them... good, then we have lots to talk about.

6:00-7:30 PM

$70

Introduction to Graphics

Thomas Dareneau

(8th grade-adult)

July 23-26

This is a hands on course for those who'd like an introduction to Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator and basic graphic design. We will explore several free online tools as well as Photoshop and the Adobe Suite including Prezi, Aurasma, and Padlet. (Note: Photoshop and Illustrator offer 30 day free trials. This would be a good time to evaluate those programs.)

Bring your own device. WiFi is available.

4:30-6:00 PM

Artist to Artist Honors (Jr/Senior High Students)

Phyllis Moser and Yocum Faculty

July 9,10,11, 16,17,18

This scholarship honors course is open to all students who participated in the Jr./Sr. High Art Show held at the Yocum Institute in January 2018. Students will study in a relaxed setting, developing their art skills and exploring new media. Lessons will be tailored to student's needs and interests.

Mon., Tues., Wed. 6:00-7:30 PM

$35

Portfolio Prep

Beth Krumholz

(High School Students)

Aug. 6-9

This intensive course is for the student planning for admission to an art school. The course will include critiquing the work, putting together the strongest portfolio possible; targeting the preferred art school; assisting in artist statements and application essays; advising on photography and presentation. The instructor, Beth Krumholz is certified through UC/San Diego and associate with the National Association of College Admission.

Mon.-Thurs. 6:30-8:00 PM

$115

Preschool and Kindergarten

Your child will have many opportunities to use art media, materials, and concepts to communicate ideas, feelings, and stretch their imagination while learning mathematics, social studies, science, and the language arts.
